

Casa San Marco , Cortona (Tuscany) Italy

Beautiful Cortona is a the jewel of medieval Tuscan hill towns and the heart and soul of Italy. Nestled just hours from Rome and Florence, the road to Cortona winds through olive groves, vineyards and farmhouses, eventually leading to the breathtaking entrance of the city's ancient walls.

Enjoy a seven night stay at Casa San Marco, a majestic 500 year old home, right in the center the of this ancient hill town, close to a wealth of quintessentially Italian restaurants, cafes, shops and entertainment. With abundant views from the terrace stretching to Lake Trasimeno, Montepulciano and beyond. This house was elegantly designed and curated by Stacey Matraw, the owner of Casa San Marco and Sojourn Ventures. This artistic and eclectic home features beautiful 300 year frescoes, 4 bedrooms, 2 baths and a large kitchen.

To simplify your Cortona travel experience, our partners Together in Tuscany will meet you upon arrival to facilitate check in and escort your group to Casa San Marco. Their services also include a personalized concierge service for some of Italy's finest cooking classes, wine tours and excursions.

- Seven night, Saturday-Saturday stay, for up to 8 people.
- No black out dates, bookings based on availability
- Airfare and ground transportation costs not included.
- Retail Value: $5700.00