Four auctioneers inducted into the National Auction Association Hall of Fame

On July 20, 2023, during the President's Gala of the 74th Annual International Auctioneers Conference & Show, four auctioneers were inducted into the National Auction Association (NAA) Hall of Fame.

OKLAHOMA CITY, OKLAHOMA (July 20, 2023) - During this year's annual President's Gala at the 74th Annual International Auctioneers Conference & Show, four auctioneers were inducted into the National Auction Association (NAA) Hall of Fame. Inductees include: Barbara Bonnette, CAI, Bonnette Auction Co., LLC, Alexandria, Louisiana; Frank Imholte, CAI, AARE, CES, Black Diamond Auctions, Saint Cloud, Minnesota; the late Kathy Kingston, CAI, BAS, Kingston Auction Co., LLC, Hampton, New Hampshire, and John Nicholls, CAI, AARE, AMM, Nicholls Auction Marketing Group, Fredericksburg, Virginia.

Inductees are not notified before receiving the Hall of Fame honor; this year's recipients were surprised on stage by family and friends.

To view the Hall of Fame induction ceremony, visit auctioneers.org.

The NAA Hall of Fame was established in 1961 as a way to recognize leaders within the auction industry. Inductees receive plaques that are displayed in the National Auction Museum located at NAA headquarters in Overland Park, Kansas.
